PREFACE.

THIS Table of Cases begins where Wait's Table of Cases ends. It was from time to time prepared in manuscript under the personal supervision of the undersigned, only for use in his legal practice.

No lawyer who has used Wait's original Table of Cases needs information as to the great value of a Table of Cases in continuation of the original work.

The preparation of this Table of Cases has been a work of great labor and difficulty, and in the performance of which the undersigned will not undertake to say some mistakes have not been made. It would be surprising if there were none.

As will be seen, this work, with few exceptions, contains the cases cited, etc., as far as Reports have been published, down to the year 1880.

R. E. ANDREWS.
